

SWAMI JI PUT TILAK WITH THE SOIL OF HIS NATIVE PLACE

World famous Yog Guru Swamiji Ramdev visited his native place – Sayed Alipur to know the welfare of his village men and mentors who nurtured him and guided him at different stages. people welcomed him with great spirit and showered flowers. He took the soil from the ground and applied on his forehead like Tilak.

When people crowded to see him, he said – everyone has equal rights on me, but now I have to think about the nation along with you. He also said that people should never forget their mother, the motherland and the mother institute (mother is the first school for a child). Man can never come up in his life, if he does not respect these things.

He addressed the villagers and said that if they want to achieve something in life then they should have higher aim and have a positive outlook, because people with negative approach have ruined their families, society and the nation. many diseases occur in the body due to this negative affect.

He said that we should start our work with the blessing of the parents. The villagers were very happy to welcome him. World famous Yog Guru Swami Ramdev was born in Sayed Alipur situated 6 km away from Nagal Chaudhary. He completed his primary education in the village school and his class VIII in Shahbaj, a near by village. He studied Panini's Asthadyayi in Sanskrit for one and half years in a Gurukul situated at Khanpur.

Swamiji's grandfather was very happy to see his grandson Ramkishan (Swamiji childhood name). He tied a turban on Swami Ji's head and welcomed him. Swamiji touched his feet and took his blessings. Swamiji met his father Ramnivas and took his blessings.

Swami Ramdev said, 'The villagers have always complained that I have done so much for the nation but never worked for development of the village.' He said that he has asked the Chief Minister of the State, Mr. Bhupinder Hudda to release 50 lakh rupees for the development of Sayed Alipur and has been approved also. Swamiji asked the villagers to invest the funds for higher education.

Recollecting his old memories he said that when he was young he used to hide and perform yagna because he always had the fear that somebody would see him. He said that the elders used to scold him that offering pure ghee for yagna is a wasteful expenditure. He said he went on hunger strike in order to make his father quit smoking. His father promised to quit smoking but he smoked the whole night before he finally guilt smoking. He appealed the villagers to stay away from drugs and other addiction.

Yogrishi Swami Ramdev went to his paternal village – Sayed Alipur. The villagers gave him a warm welcome and were thrilled to see him in the village. They garlanded him and took his blessings, they were very happy to receive him. After reaching the village Swamiji took the soil of his village and applied on his forehead like Tilak as it was sacred soil. he talked to his villages and asked them to unite and work for the nation. Swamiji also met his father and grandfather.
